

The Weekly News

Dear Church Family,

Jesus said that he has come to give his followers an abundant and full life (John 10:10). What does that mean? The parable Jesus tells in John 10:1–6, is a picture of who Jesus is. In knowing Jesus as our good shepherd, we know God, and God knows us! Surely, that is an amazing thought! The gift of an abundant (rich and full life) is a result of personally knowing Jesus as the Shepherd of all life, and therefore the Good Shepherd of your life. That God loves you, and longs to be with you to enrich your life now!

STAYING ALIGNED

Most of us never think much about wheel alignment. We simply get into our cars, turn the key, and expect them to take us where we want to go. Yet something as small as a slight adjustment in the angle of a wheel can make the difference between a vehicle that travels straight and one that gradually drifts off course.

Our walk with God can be very much the same. Spiritual drift seldom begins with a dramatic decision. More often, it starts with small things. A prayer that is postponed. A Bible left unopened. A gentle prompting from God that we ignore. A worry we carry ourselves instead of placing in His hands.

At first, the difference seems insignificant. But over time, small changes in direction can take us further from where we intended to be.

The good news is that God is always ready to realign our hearts. He does not wait for us to become perfect. He simply invites us to draw near again.

A few quiet moments in prayer.
A passage of Scripture read thoughtfully.
A decision to forgive.
A word of encouragement.
A simple act of obedience.

These may seem like small adjustments, but they help keep our hearts centred on Christ and our lives moving in His direction.

Scripture reminds us:

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to Him, and He will make your paths straight.”

Proverbs 3:5–6

As a new week begins, perhaps this is a good opportunity to pause and ask: Am I still aligned with God’s purposes for my life? Are there small adjustments He is calling me to make?

Often, the greatest changes in our spiritual journey do not come through dramatic moments, but through the quiet, faithful choices we make each day. May we remain close to Him, trust His guidance, and allow Him to keep us steady on the path He has prepared.
